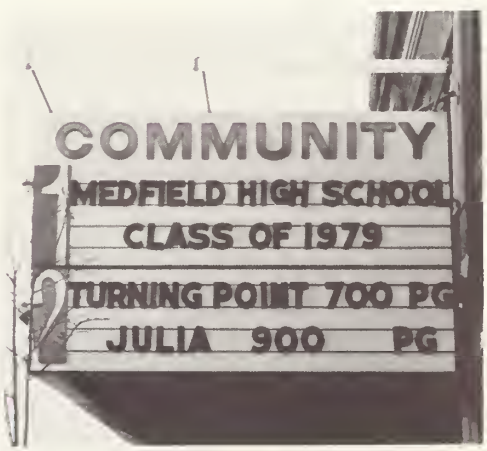
BEING HUMAN, with our weaknesses and strengths, we may find it difficult, at times, to measure up to our duty as citizens; measure up to the ennobling message of our spiritual leaders; to the words authored by our Founding Fathers; and to an awareness that our roots go back to a common humanity.

But to "measure up" must be a constant challenge, a constant goal, as we aspire to make this Utopian Dream a reality.

And we'll find it easier to "measure up" if we maintain a sense of humor, that saving grace. For without it we'd be in real trouble.

To be able to sense the humorous aspect of life with its problems will help us accomplish more, avoid "cracking up."

We should be grateful for those among us who are particularly gifted to make us laugh; gifted with their actions, words and artistic talent to lighten our burdens at the right moment.



CLASS OF 1979

The staff of the 1979 Peak dedicates its work to Mrs. Estelle Stahl because of her dedication to the student body. She has helped us on her own time, starting at seven o'clock in the morning and working nonstop until the last student has gone home in the afternoon.

Although she stands less than five feet tall, Mrs. Stahl commands a great deal of respect. She never stopped trying to teach us, using her incredible storehouse of knowledge and great mind. She has been an inspiration to us all throughout our high school years.

With this thought in mind, we say, "Thank-you, Mrs. Stahl."

Julie Ann Ames
"Jul"
7/12/61
Up on: P.M., Friends, the Villa, Cruising through Norwood
Where did all the time go?
One day we were just starting school,
And you lived right down the street.
We watched each other's memories grow.
Yet our eyes never saw past
Each day's sunlight.
There was no such word as goodbye,
But we finally learned its meaning.
As the sun faded,
And our child-like eyes filled
With grown-up tears.
— J. Merrill

Dawn Archer
Up on: mint chocolate chip ice cream, sunshine, smiles, spring, friends, sunsets
Down on: false friends, lies, cliques, rainy days, shallow people
"Happiness is as a butterfly, which when pursued is always beyond our grasp, but which, if you will sit down quietly, may alight upon you."
— Hawthorne —

Doug Armstrong
Up on: '65 Pontiacs, good friends
There are places I remember
All my life
Though some have changed.
Some forever not for better
Some have gone and some remain
All these places have their moments
With lovers and friends
I still can recall
Some are dead and some are living
In my life
I've loved them all.
— The Beatles

Nancy Diane Arzberger
Up on: beaches, 9/22/76, Springsteen concerts, dancing, good times with friends, late night swims, G.R. 78
Down on: two-faced people, roll-on perfume, popping corks, private property, blushing
Favorite saying: This is freakin' me out.
Forever like the rose
I suppose that's the way to live
Strong and evergiving
Always living with a purpose and a goal
To blosom day to day
Then someday to fade away
Forever like the rose.
— Jim Seals —

Stephen J. Astle
Upon: Neil Young, good times, running, winning, Springsteen
Down on: AM radio, being mistaken for Shiels, disco —
There's a world you're living in
No one else has your part
All God's children in the wind
Take it in and blow hard
— Neil Young
. . . suspenders.
Thanks to everyone who helped me to make it this far, especially the Class of '79!
Someday we're gonna get to that place
Where we really want to go
But till then tramps like us
Baby we were born to run!
— Springsteen

Ambition: to be a pilot, marry rich, live in Australia
Lullaby, look in your eyes, run around the same old town.
Doesn't mean that much to me, to mean that much to you,
I've been first and last, look at how the time goes past.
And I'm alone at last rolling home to you.
Old man take a look at my life . . .
— Neil Young

David Beale
I was born 12-11-60 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and lived there for eight years. I then moved to St. Petersburg, Florida. Last year I moved to Medfield from St. Pete. My interests are photography, travel, flying, listening to music, swimming, and mechanical work. Down On: back seat drivers, being an alternative, curfews, sige kapatidnablbae
Happiness is: an AFS sister
There are many ways of being in this circle we call life.
A wise man seeks an answer, burns his candle through the night.
Is a jewel just a pebble that found a way to shine?
Is a hero's blood more righteous than a hobo's sip of wine?
— J.D.

Judith Anne Beauregard

— Jonathan Livingston Seagull

Kevin Patrick Brady
"Birdseye" "K.B." "Hinduhead"
Up On: acting, J.T., smiles, laughing, talks
Ambition: actor
To grasp the full significance of life is the actors duty; to interpret it is his problem; and to express it is his dedication . . . Being an actor is the the loneliest thing in the world, You're all alone with your concentration and imagination, and that's all you have. Being a good actor isn't easy. Being a man is even harder. I want to be both before I'm done.

Hi, everybody!
I love life, people, sports and eating.
Life here is great: very friendly people, ice cream, blond boys, snow, a super volleyball team, playing crazy American football, walking on the streets in shorts, etc.
It's not so great having to get up at 6:30 a.m. and thinking that one day we'll have to say good-bye.
Anyway, I want everybody to write me and save some money to visit me in Portugal — no excuses!
Yours,
Susana — "H.S. No. 2"

If I had been here before
I would probably know just what to do
Had I ever been here before,
On another time around the wheel,
I would probably know just how to deal with all of you,
And I feel like I've been here before.
And you know it makes me wonder
What's going on under the ground
Do you know, don't you wonder
What's going on down under the ground.
We have all been here before.

Forgiven but Guilty You all know me, or you think you do, I wish I'd told you.
But why am I different? There was a Word, a long time ago,
That I heard, and if Jesus love me, but a dead man can't love . . .
if He's dead.
The text read, "spread the Word" but I fearfully guarded my secret. The camouflage worked but, I was really just fooling myself. Our ways are parted, you couldn't forgive me. Why am I different?

Janet Ann McDonnell

"Jan"

Up on: sports, winning, good friends, and good times, Red Sox,

Down on: bad knees, rainy days

Forget about the days
When it's been cloudy,
But don't forget
Your hours in the sun . . .
Forget about the times
You've been defeated,
But don't forget
The victories you've won . . .
Forget about the days
When you've been lonely,
But don't forget
The friendly smiles you've seen . . .
Forget about the plans
That didn't seem to work out right
But don't forget
To always have a dream . . .

Marie McGonagle

Down On: Saying goodbye, losing good friends, being cold, rainy days.
Life is: Yesterdays memories and todays dreams.
Far away there in the sunshine
are my highest aspirations,
I may not reach them,
but I can look up
and see their beauty, believe in them
and try to follow
where they lead

I have four things yet to learn in life;
To think clearly without hurry or cunfusion;
To love everybody sincerely:
To act in everything with the highest motives;
To trust God unhesitatingly . . .

Once it seemed
There would always be
A time for everything
Ages past
I knew at last
My life had never been.
I'd been missing,
What time could bring,
Fifty years
I'm Filled with tears
And Joys
I've never cried
Burn the wick
And chain the Mule.
There no time for everything,
— Tull

Suzanne G. Munsey
"Inspiration"
I tried to build a perfection with my hands and failed
Then with my will's most strict commands, and what naught availed
What shall he gain but some poor miser's pelf,
Who thinks for ever of his silly self?
Then to the stars I flung my thrust, Scoring the menace of my coward dust;
Freed from my little will's control
To a good purpose marched my soul; In nameless, shapeless God found I my rest,
Though for my solace I built God a breast.
— Anna Wickham

The secret of life is enjoying the passage of time,
Any fool can do it, there ain't nothing to it,
And since we're at the top of the hill we might
As well enjoy the ride
Down.
— J.T.

Mary Murphy
Be, as a page that aches for a word
Which speaks on a theme that is timeless
While the sun God will make for your day.
Sing as a song in search of a voice that is silent and the one God will make for your own.

If you wake up and don't want to smile,
If it takes just a little while,
Open your eyes and look at the day
You'll see things in a different way.
Don't stop thinking about tomorrow,
Don't stop, it'll soon be here,
It'll be better than before,
Yesterday's gone, Yesterday's gone.
Why not think about the times to come,
And not about the things you've done,
Don't stop thinking about tomorrow.

Than I ever was before
On the crest of this elation
Must I crash upon the shore
And with the driftwood of acquaintance
Light the fire to love once more
I am wind blown . . . I am times.
Don't believe it till you've held it
Life is seldom what it seems
But lay your heart upon the table
And in the shuffling of dreams
Remember who on earth you are.

What Is Graduation?
Graduation is an end.
But also a beginning —
The start of all the dreams
That every graduate is spinning.
Graduation is sighs and laughter
Mingled liberally with tears,
And memories of the moments shared
With classmates through the years.
Graduation marks the end
Of one phase of work and fun
Like a milestone in the path
Where new adventures are begun.

It all seemed vague and unimportant until today.
I recalled the classrooms, a part of my life behind me.
The spelling bees, the ghosts of teachers and long-gone friends are so clear to me.
Yet they fade away so easily.
Wat it so long ago, my friends?
We've gone our separate way.
Time ticks on, I must keep on.
Please remember me, Okay?

MEDFIELD SOCCER

Led by co-captains Dan DiMezza and Pete Farrar, the Medfield Soccer Warriors had an excellent 13-4-2 season. The boys won two tournament games against Bridgewater-Raynham (score: 3 to 2) and an exciting come-from-behind victory over Concord Academy (score: 2 to 1). These two triumphs took the team all the way to the quarterfinals.

This great success could not have been achieved without the fifteen seniors on the team. The Warriors of the 1979 season will have to operate extra hard to make up for the absence of these players: Dave Bartholomew, Pete Farrar, Bob Boyd, Kurt Carlson, Rich Copeland, Dan Dimezza, Rick Dubois, Peter Flynn, George Gallagher, John Harris, Jeff Kenney, Ken "Killer" Kilcoyne, Kurt "Crash" Mozer, John Ryan, Pete Willgohs.

WARRIORS

VOLLEYBALL

The junior varsity volleyball team, led by captain Carol Angelis, enjoyed a much-improved season over last year, posting a 10-3 record. The girls beat every team in the league at least once, with losses coming only to Westwood, Ashland, and Holliston.

The varsity volleyball team, composed mostly of seniors, also improved over last year with a 6-7-0 record. Co-captains Karen Strom and Susana Marques deCarvalhro were named to the Tri-Valley All Star Team. Some highlights for the season were beating powerful Dover-Sherborn twice, and defeating Holliston, who was previously unbeaten.

This year's cross country squad was undoubtedly the most outstanding team of the fall season. The team put up with alot of bad luck, being tricked by Bellingham, forfeiting to Ashland because the bus didn't show up, and being stricken with illnesses. Worst of all, the men had to put up with arch rival Dover's coach, his bragging, and his snide remarks.

Despite all this suffering (and even one moderately hard workout), our heroes managed to survive the season and actually have a good time.

FIELD HOCKEY 1978

The varsity field hockey team, led by co-captains Dawn Archer and Maryellen McCarthy, ended their season with a 2-6-1 record. Maryellen was high scorer for the team. The girls are looking forward to a successful season next year as they are only losing two players.

The JV field hockey team, under co-captains Cindy Davey and Mary Sullivan, compiled a 1-5-1 record. The girls improved their play toward the end of the season, beating Westwood and tying Dover-Sherborn, who was previously unbeaten.

According to coach Bill Young, the Warriors had the toughest schedule in the eleven years he has been coaching; however, the team managed to pull off a respectable 4-6 season. The boys lost their first non-league games in eleven years to powerhouse Southbridge and Division 1's Hanover, but mauled rival Ashland (score: 27-7). Other victories included Bellingham and Hopkinton, as well as a 34 to 14 triumph over Medway, the first time the Warriors have defeated the Mustangs in six years.

Although they went for it, the Warriors lost a heartbreaking game against Dover-Sherborn (complete with a called-back touchdown), but the boys still caught the Feva and had a good time all season.

GO FOR IT!

Medfield Warrior Football

Led by Co-Captains Patty Harrington and Cathy Cullen, this year's edition of the Girl's Cross Country Team surprised everyone by setting several Tri-Valley League records. These included the most nearly perfect season's record, the fastest recorded time for a race, the most beautiful runners, and the skinniest coach, to name a few.

The surprise is that there is no Tri-Valley League for girl's cross country, and Medfield's final record was 0 wins 8 losses.

The girls did have a good time, though, and a lot of potential is showing by underclassmen Paula Quatramoni, Cathy Cullen, and Pam Harrington. With the enthusiasm showed this year by the girls we hope that next year's team will be as spirited. Good Luck, girls!

HOCKEY

Although their record did not show it, the hockey team had some outstanding players from the senior class. On offense, Ronny Floser made a large contribution and was among the league's highest scorers. Dave Holland showed his skill on defense, as well as his leadership as captain of the squad. Jeff Kenney, who played center, was a valuable playmaker, while Mike Heili demonstrated his all-around talent as a defenseman.

1978-79 was yet another building year for the hockey team, which has only been in existence for three seasons. The squad shows alot of potential for the seasons to come.

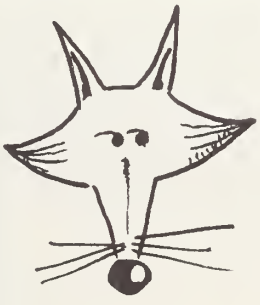
The Girl's Soccer Team recorded their best season ever posting a 10-1-1 record. Highlights of their season included a 3-0 win over arch-rival Foxboro. They advanced to the finals of the Eastern Mass Tournament where they lost an exciting game to Needham, 2-1, after 4 over-times and 4 sudden deaths. Goalie Kelly O'Dell was named Player of the Year by the Globe and Herald All-Scholastic Teams. Coach Pat Scarsiotti was named Coach of the Year. Janet Bussow was selected to the first team and Lisa Raffin and Heather Rogers were awarded honorable mention.

FOX RUN



HOOPS

Well, they did it agian! The Big Blue made it to the State Tournament for the tenth consecutive year. Although it was half-expected that the boys would have a lousy season, they managed to pull off a 19-2 overall record.

The climax of the season was, without a doubt, the second game against Dover-Sherborn. The Pit/Zoo Crew was in full force, and pushed the squad on to 52-50 triumph.

The success of the 1978-79 Big Blue could not have been achieved without hard work and dedication.

Hey. Dr R, where d you get those moves?

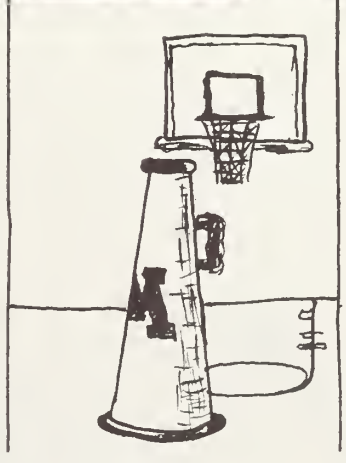
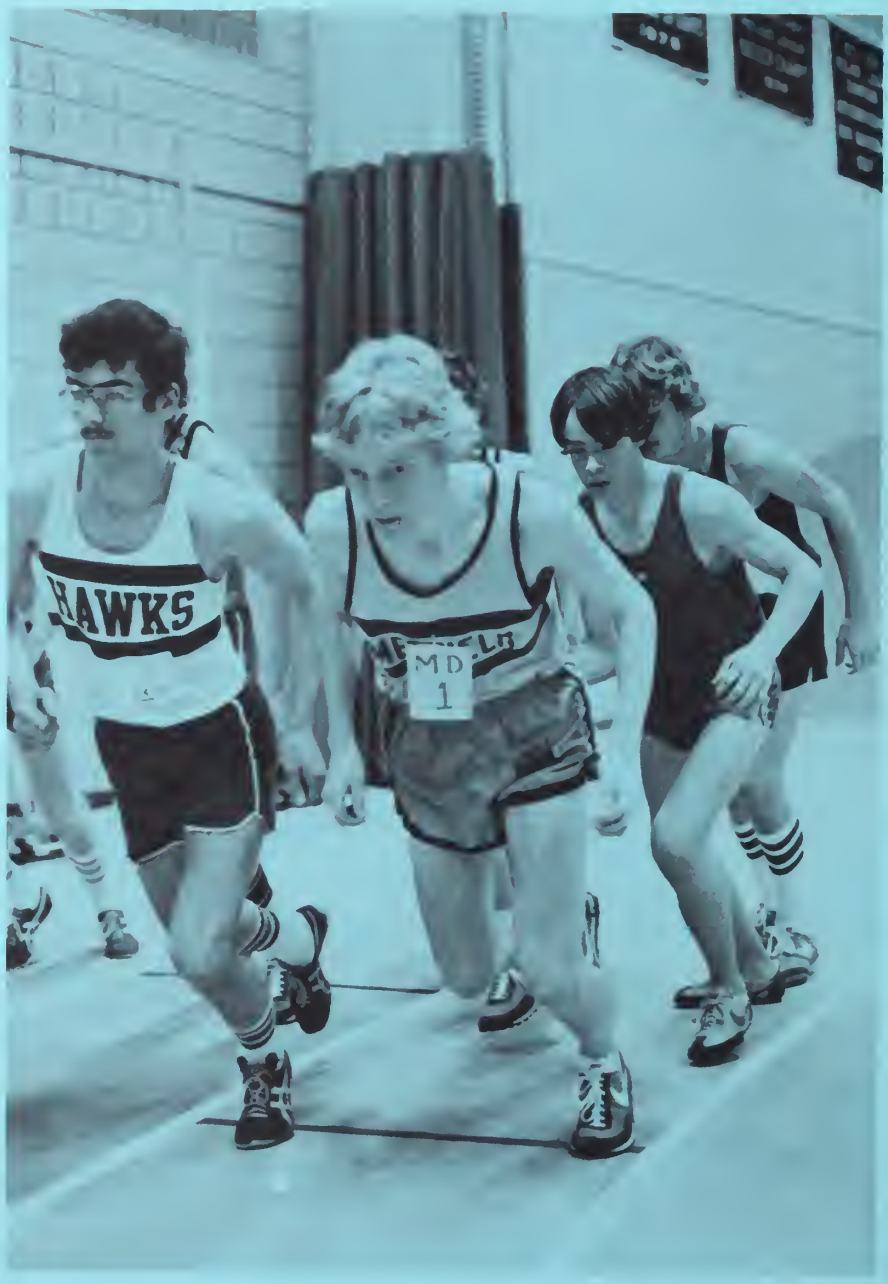
This year's fall cheerleaders were a great inspiration to the football team, and their time and efforts were much appreciated. Team members include (back row, l to r) Ellen Mazukina, Nancy Arzberger, Diane Warren, Jeanne Devlin, Jackie Reese, (front row, l to r) Laurie McCarrick, Todi Stonefield.

This year's basketball cheerleaders did a superb job cheering our basketball team to a winning season, although they did not place in the competition. Team members include, (back row, l to r) Nancy Arzberger, Anne Marie Gatusso, Coach Cindy Crown, Cathy Ruzzo, Jeanne Devlin, (front row, l to r), Joanne Hunt, Nancy MacDonald, Todi Stonefield, Diane Warren, Ellen Mazukina. The JV cheerleaders were led by co-captains Sue Ebert and Maryellen Woglom, and included Suzanne Orcutt, Cathy Manganello, Ellen Maguire, Stacy Owen, Susan Morgan, Pam Harrington, and Paula Quatromoni.



INDOOR TRACK



Once again our heroes made it through the season without losing all of their members. A total of about six diehards showed up for the last meet.

With a final record of 8-0 (eight losses, zero wins, that is), one might think that the men had a bad season. Not true! Rick Schnizer set a school record in the high jump with a leap of 6 feet 6 ½ inches, while Skip Cusack had a personal record when he hurled the shot put a whopping 4 feet 5 inches. And, despite Peter Wright's efforts, the men managed to have a good time through it all. None of it could have been possible, though, without the efforts of Mr. and Mrs. Youlden, who never gave up hope.

LANE BURNERS

GIRLS Basketball

The girl's basketball team completed its season with an 11-5 mark. They were led by Captain Beth Tomney, who led the team in steals and averaged 8.6 rebounds per game, and junior Lisa Raffin, who averaged 18.2 points per game, second highest in the league. The team is looking forward to a strong season next year, as they will lose only two players.

McDonald's

Going to McDonald's® is almost as much a part of school as going to class. You've made us the place to meet, to talk, to have a good time, to celebrate your victories and help forget defeats.

You've made McDonald's more than just another place to eat. And that's why, at McDonald's, we do it all for you.
